History - Political Science - Public Administration - Not for Profit

Career/Job Resources

AmeriCorps [1] - This federally-sponsored organization offers 80,000+ nationwide intensive community service opportunities at nonprofits, schools, public agencies, and community and faith-based groups.

Careers in Government [2] - This is a job/internship search site dedicated to matching qualified individuals with challenging and rewarding careers in government and the public sector.

Chronicle of Philanthropy [3]
The Chronicle of Philanthropy contains job listings and news for fundraisers, charity leaders, grant makers, and others involved in philanthropic enterprises.

City Limits [4]
City Limits contains job/internship postings and resources for the NYC based non-profit and civic community organizations.

Common Good Careers [5]
Common Good Careers is a search firm that focuses on innovative nonprofits with job postings from 200+ organizations in 29 states.

Environmental Careers Organization [6]
This website contains green job/internship postings with eco-employers across the US.

The Foundation Center [7]
The Foundation Center website is a leading information source on worldwide philanthropy and a comprehensive database of US/global philanthropic organizations.

Global MPA.net [8]
Global MPA.net is the largest searchable database for Masters in Public Administration (MPA) and Masters in Public Policy (MPP) degree programs, offering extensive information on schools and careers.

Go Government [9] An online guide that details how to search/apply for federal government jobs/internships including career/agency research strategies and tips on how to complete government job applications.

Idealist.org contains job/internship postings, volunteer opportunities and resources on organizations with a nonprofit/social sector focus.

New York Non Profit Press
This website provides New York area job listings and career resources for the non-profit sector.

New York State Department of Civil Service Job Listings
This url will take you to a list of open opportunities with New York State government on the state and local level.

OpportunityKnocks.org
A national online job board and career development resource focused exclusively on the nonprofit sector.

Philanthropy News Digest Jobs
Nationwide and international job postings at foundations/nonprofit organizations can be found on this website.

Public Service Careers
Use this website to apply for job/internship positions, as well as learn about public sector opportunities, across government, nonprofits, NGOs, consulting, contracting, and academia.

Student Conservation Association
This organization provides hands-on conversation service and internship opportunities for college students

The NonProfit Times Job Listings
An online website that provides job postings and offers detailed information on the nonprofit/nonprofit management sector.

US State Department Careers
This website lists available national and international job/internship opportunities with the US Department of State, the lead US foreign affairs agency

USAJOBS.gov
USAJOBS.gov is the official site for Federal job/internship postings and employment information

Professional Organizations

Alliance for Nonprofit Management
A professional organization of individuals and organizations devoted to improving the management and governance capacity of nonprofits.

American Historical Association
The American Historical Association is a professional organization for all historians, encompassing every historical period and geographical areas, that assists professional historians in all areas of employment.
The American Political Science Association The leading professional organization for the study of political science, serving 15,000+ members in 80+ countries.

The American Society of International Law This American Society of International Law is a professional organization aimed at fostering the study of international law and promoting the establishment and maintenance of international relations on the basis of law and justice. The website features job/internship/fellowship postings.

Association of Fundraising Professionals An international organization that represents 30,000+ members in 235 chapters worldwide and works to advance philanthropy through advocacy, research, education and certification programs.

The Organization of American Historians The largest professional society devoted to the teaching and study of American history.

Source URL: http://www.pace.edu/career-services/history-political-science-public-administration-not-profit

Links:
[20] https://www.usajobs.gov/StudentsAndGrads