General Job Search

LinkedIn.com - Join LinkedIn to connect to people, see job postings, get discovered for what you do best and more. Find opportunities – or let them find you.

About.com: Job Searching - Everything you need for a successful job search including entry-level jobs, international, freelance, jobs by state or type, internships, a resume posting, and much much more.

AllStarJobs.com - Search for jobs in your specific city and state. Post resumes and other job search tools.

America's Job Exchange - This is the official website run by the Dept of labor…You can search by state, county. Good for re-locators.

CareerBuilder.com - The largest and most targeted search engine on the Web. Scan the 50 largest, most recognizable career sites on the Web. Search over 3 million job listings with one click.

CareerJournal - The premier executive career site from The Wall Street Journal that highlights the day's top stories and includes "Find a Job" and "Job Alert" features.

Career One Stop - Look for a job in all 50 states! This site pulls out job vacancies posted with each state's department of labor office.

Career Cloud - The mission of CareerCloud is to connect job seekers and employers through social and mobile technology...ultimately building better job seekers is a vertical search engine that lets you search over 400 career advice sites at once.

CollegeRecruiter.com - Search for Internships and entry level jobs.

Hound.com - Search for jobs and internships by searching employers' career pages.

Internet Job Source - This site allows you to search for a job by state.

Job-Hunt.org - An index of on-line resources for job hunters, organized into categories by major. They also allow you to search through job openings, post your resume, get advice on job seeking and career changing, and research potential employers and industries.

JobBankUSA.com - Specializes in providing employment and resume information services to job candidates, employers and recruitment firms.

JobVillage.com - Searches the major job boards from one location saving you an incredible amount of time.

Monster.com - Featuring over 1,700 pages of targeted career advice for all levels and areas, in-depth info and resources, plus the opportunity to research companies.

MonsterCollege.com - One of the largest and most popular employment sites on the internet. Providing full-time, part-time, temporary and internship opportunities to Pace students and alumni.

Quintessential Careers - A directory which allows you to go straight to the employment section of the companies where you might like to work. These corporate sites list all current job openings as well as giving you the specific requirements of how you should respond to job postings.

Real Match.com - Imagine a dating site, but for jobs. You enter your skills, employment history and job preferences.
The employer enters their job requirements. Then the system matches between the two of you and presents the results according to how good the match is.

Riley Guide [20] - Guides you through the many online sites and services that are useful for your job search.

Simply Hired [21] - Search over 5 million by location, industry and/or occupation.

TrueCareers [22] - A national, online career site providing an alternative to today's high volume, online job boards. Post your resume, search for jobs, and check out the Career Resources section.

---

Source URL: http://www.pace.edu/career-services/general-job-search

Links: