How did the listserv begin?

It originated as a pilot that stemmed from a series of email address books. The goal was to assist alumni and experienced graduate students in their job search by receiving email notices. The notices alerted them of jobs that Career Services received from third party recruiters and companies. Due to the positive response by students, alumni, and staff on all three campuses, we decided to create the listserv.

What type of jobs are posted?

The types of jobs include, accounting, finance, information systems, computer science, management, human resources, marketing and sales. They vary based on organization and market dynamics. Thus, if you don’t see a job in your field for some time, it could get better later on.

What kind of experience are these jobs looking for?

The jobs we receive range from entry level to senior level executives. Most of the jobs are for experienced
Can I screen or filter jobs that are posted on the listserv?

We do not screen the jobs for each person on the listserv. We just forward the listings. If you have any questions about the listings contact the recruiter or employer directly.

How do I apply to a job posted to the listserv?

Anyone interested in a position should apply directly to the company using the contact method specified in the job posting.

Who do I speak to if I have a question about a job posted to the listserv?

If you have any questions about the listings or you wish to apply, contact the recruiter or employer directly.

Where else can I look for jobs?

Jobs from companies are posted in our Online Resume Referral program. These jobs can be access through our Pace eRecruiting system. So, please check that frequently. For more information about accessing Pace eRecruiting please contact your career counselor. Jobs from third party recruiters are also posted in the Resource Center located in your local Career Services Office.

What if I accept an offer?

Please let career services know if you accept a job offer. Regardless if you got the job through the listserv, Pace eRecruiting, or you on your own, we need to know if you are employed full-time. It provides valuable statistical information that can assist future students. All information is kept confidential and is never shared with any other organization.

What if I change my email address?

You may at some point change your email address. The trouble is that the listserv knows you only by the email address you originally subscribed. The easiest way to change your subscription email address is to:

1. Unsubscribe your old email address from the listserv
2. Subscribe using your new email address

Don't Forget: You should also update your email address in the online directory portion of your alumni online community. Better yet, get a free email address and forwarding service(yourname@alumni.pace.edu) from Pace!!
