ELANA HERZOG: VISITING ARTIST LECTURE

Elana Herzog tears, rips, staples, and stacks domestic materials to create space-enveloping installations. Carpets, bedspreads, bits of furniture, and scraps of fabric are the ubiquitous materials transformed in her work. Herzog has exhibited her work at PPOW and Lmak Galleries, New York, the Aldrich Museum of Contemporary Art, the Herbert F. Johnson Museum, Cornell University, and the Reykjavik Art Museum, Reykjavik, Iceland, among other venues. She is the recipient of awards from the Louis Comfort Tiffany Foundation, NYFA, the Joan Mitchell Foundation, and the Marie Walsh Sharpe Art Foundation.
