P A C E U N I V E R S I T Y

Climate and Insurance

Sponsored by Pace Law School's Center for Environmental Legal Studies, Energy and Climate Center and the Pace Law Land Use Law Center

Date/Time: October 1, 2009 from 6:00 p.m. -- 9:00 p.m.

Location: Pace Law School, Moot Court Room (entrance below the library).

CLE: 2.5 CLE credits Practice

In this 2nd of 3 climate change CLEs, we will cover the ways that global climate change has affected the insurance industry and given rise to litigation. Key topics will include the nature and purpose of insurance; losses potentially associated with climate change; coverage and risk-management issues; insurance trends; and types of environmental insurance policies for global climate change. Emphasis will be placed on environmental insurance cases involving climate change related risks and losses. Reinsurance also will be covered. Cost for attorneys is $35 per program; each program provides 2.5 hours of NY CLE. Pace Law students can attend free of charge. All must pre-register at (914) 422-4062. The event will be held Robert B. Fleming Moot Court Room on the Pace Law School campus.

Adjunct Professor John G. Nevius, Esq., P.E. – Shareholder, Anderson Kill & Olick, P.C.

Registration Fee: $35; Free for Pace Law School students

For registration and more information, contact Linda Maccarrone at 914-422-4062 or visit www.law.pace.edu. The program will be webcast for those who cannot attend in person.

This program complements Pace Law School's new Masters of Environmental Law, Climate Change Track. Learn more about this new degree option at www.law.pace.edu/graduate
