Update on New York State's Legal Efforts to Address Climate Change in 2009

Sponsored by Pace Law School's Center for Environmental Legal Studies, Energy and Climate Center and the Pace Law Land Use Law Center

Date/Time: October 15, 2009 from 6 p.m. -- 8:30 p.m.

Location: Pace Law School, Moot Court Room (entrance below the library).

CLE: 2.5 CLE credits Practice

Speakers from both the public and private sector will address ways that New York State is (and should be) addressing climate change and sustainability. Topics to be covered include: upcoming renewable energy projects, regional transportation improvements, land-use initiatives, the cap-and-trade program created by the Regional Greenhouse Gas Initiative and relevant litigation and court decisions. This unique program is part of a series of climate change programs at Pace Law School this fall.

Speakers will include:

- Sarah Barish-Straus, Esq., New York Power Authority
- Daniel Hernandez, AIA, Jonathan Rose Companies LLC
- Gordon Johnson, Esq., New York Metropolitan Transportation Authority
- Katherine Kennedy, Esq., New York State Attorney General's Office
- John Parker, Esq., New York State Department of Environmental Conservation

Moderator:

- Christopher Rizzo, Esq., Carter, Ledyard & Milburn LLP

Registration Fee: $35; Free for Pace Law School students
