

BBA in Management - Health Care Management

Your Lubin BBA: A Rewarding Career in a Critical Role

With a Lubin BBA in Health Care Management, you will be prepared to join a rapidly expanding industry in a dynamic market. Opportunities abound! The program prepares you to:

- Join a medical practice with the skills necessary to make a contribution that has significant impact
- Help make the world better by supporting doctors and their medical teams who work toward improving health

Lubin's Health Care Management program:

- is the only AACSB-accredited program in New York City
- focuses largely on developing your management skills unlike other programs that place more emphasis on technical skills
- prepares you to work and assume a leadership role in government, non-profits, and the public sector

Nationally, New York State ranks third in terms of its number of health care companies in this $1.668 trillion industry (Source: U.S. Census Bureau). Also, the health care industry is the 2nd largest employer in New York City. When you study health care management in an area where opportunities are so abundant, you will be well-equipped to assume a leadership position among the 550,000 employed health care professionals in New York City.
