GRADUATE & UNDERGRADUATE FIELD STUDY IN INTERNATIONAL FINANCE TO

SINGAPORE & INDIA

January Intercession 2017—ESTIMATED Travel January 8 – January 18, 2017

Instructors: Professor Padma Kadiyala
Course: Undergraduate FIN360V and Graduate FIN 680V
Credits: 3
Travel Cost (in addition to tuition): $2,650 plus Indian visa (+$100 study abroad fee; approximate and subject to change) Includes airfare between Bangalore & Singapore, hotel, some meals, local transportation, site visits, tours, etc. Students should budget extra funds for meals.
*Approximate and subject to change.
Students must arrange roundtrip airfare from NYC to Bangalore and return Singapore to NYC.
FULL PAYMENT DUE: September 30, 2016

SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE – APPLY ONLINE AT www.pace.edu/lubin/travelscholarships

Course Focus: This travel course will focus on venture capital and private equity markets in South Asia. Students will visit venture capital-funded companies like RedBus, Wooqer, and ZapStitch. Students will also learn about financial innovation and the challenges of exiting a venture capital investment through an IPO.

Requirements:
• Pre-trip class sessions: Daily course meetings between January 2—6, 2017 (to be confirmed)
• Attendance at ALL sessions mandatory

For more information: Visit the course web page at http://tinyurl.com/LubinSingaporeIndia or contact Professor Kadiyala at pkadiyala@pace.edu.