First and Only at Pace Law

Pace Law School is known nationally and internationally for our stellar “first and only” clinics, institutes, externships, legal publications, and curricula—innovative programs that have set new precedents in many areas of law.

Innovative Programs

- The best and most expansive International Summer Internships Abroad Program which sends approximately 20 students abroad each year to work in law firms around the world
- The first Investor Rights Clinic in the country
- The first Online Dispute Resolution Programs and Global Consumer Law Forum
- The only U.N. environmental diplomacy internship placing students as diplomatic attachés with small island state missions

Moot Courts

- The first and largest National Environmental Law Moot Court
- The first International Moot Competition based on the International Criminal Court and the Rome Statute.
- The first International Commercial Arbitration Moot (The Vis) and the largest international moot in one place at one time, with more than 200 law schools participating

Judges and the Courts

- The first and only judicial institute in New York, the New York State Judicial Institute housed on the Pace Law campus
- The first and only Journal of Court Innovation is a joint project of the New York State Judicial Institute, the Center for Court Innovation and Pace Law School to promote innovation in the courts, with Pace Law students serving as editors.

Environmental & Land Use

- The first and only Climate Change Track in the world within the Environmental LLM
- The first and only Land Use and Sustainable Development Track within the Environmental LLM in the world
- The first and only SJD in Environmental Law in the US (and possibly the world)
