PRESENTS

Featuring

PARRY AFTAB
Wired Safety Executive Director

Along with other industry, policy, law enforcement and academic leaders

Sexting, cyberbullying and distracted driving will be among the topics discussed at the Summit sponsored by the Seidenberg School in conjunction with WiredSafety, a widely recognized digital safety organization. The focus of the Summit is to obtain insight and ideas from students, parents and educators to prompt policymakers and industry leaders to move forward on establishing and implementing “best practice” standards for the safe use of mobile devices by young people.
