PACE
UNIVERSITY
Work toward greatness.

A Plan for Success— in the Classroom and Beyond

Your college experience should be more than the number of credits required to graduate. It should be a combination of strong academics, real-world experiences, and mentorships that guides you toward becoming successful both professionally and personally. That's why we created the Pace Path.

The Pace Path features:

- Customized goal setting—work with your adviser to design your four-year plan, which is flexible and evolves with you
- Strong academics—cutting-edge programs and courses taught by renowned faculty
- Real-world experiences—including internships, clinicals, clubs, athletics, research, competitions, community service, and study abroad
- Dedicated mentoring and advising—one-on-one support from professors, peers, and alumni

This personal, academic, and professional preparation will take you anywhere. Or everywhere. It's up to you.

► Accelerated Combined and Dual Degrees (five- and six-year programs)

Earn both a bachelor's and a graduate degree in as few as five years with one of Pace's accelerated combined and dual degree programs. In addition to saving time, students save on the equivalent of a year's worth of tuition. Choose from 35 accelerated programs in a wide range of fields including accounting, law, education, psychology and counseling, computer science, media and communications, and public administration.

Learn more at www.pace.edu/dualdegrees.

► Pforzheimer Honors College

As a member of this highly esteemed community of talented, hand-selected scholars and up-and-coming leaders, you will have access to innovative and exclusive Honors courses, early registration, and exclusive events, programs, and lectures. One-to-one mentoring and specialized faculty advisement will help you design your own four-year path and challenge you to realize your greatest potential. Students are reviewed for the Honors College at the point of admission by admissions counselors and the Honors College—no separate application is required. Accepted students receive a $15,000 minimum annual scholarship.

Learn more at www.pace.edu/honors.

► Study Abroad as a Pace Student

Studying outside the US can be an amazing experience, and Pace's Study Abroad Office gives you the guidance and support you need. Popular faculty-led courses include producing a documentary in tropical locales, studying European business in Berlin, assessing ecosystems in Costa Rica, and unraveling the mysteries of Rome. Spend a semester at one of Pace's global partner schools in countries like Australia, China, the United Kingdom, Chile, Japan, Portugal, Germany, Switzerland, and many others.

► Pace University Costs Less Than You Think

We're committed to making and keeping a Pace education affordable. Financial aid resources include a broad range of merit-based scholarships ($10,000–$28,500), grants, on-campus employment, and loans. All admitted students are considered for every available option.

Pace offers online financial aid calculators to help students and their families estimate their financial aid package. Many find that Pace is actually more affordable than similar public and private colleges due to the robust scholarships and financial awards offered to families. To use our Net Price Calculator[†] and Merit Award Estimator[‡], visit www.pace.edu/calculator.

* Fee for tuition only. Does not include fees, room, or board.

† The federal government requires colleges and universities to post a net price calculator on their websites.

‡ No FAFSA required to receive merit award.

Pace University reserves the right to change tuition rates.
