Seidenberg School of Computer Science and Information Systems
Graduate Degree Programs 2016

Master of Science (MS)
Computer Science
Enterprise Analytics
Information Systems
Internet Technology
Software Development and Engineering
Telecommunications Systems and Networks

Doctor of Philosophy (PhD)
Computer Science

Doctoral Studies for Computing Professionals (DPS)
Computing and IT Professionals*

* Programs designed to be a hybrid of online and on campus courses

For more information on Seidenberg’s graduate programs, visit www.pace.edu/USA.
Graduate Application Procedure

Full-time and part-time graduate programs are offered at Pace’s conveniently located New York City and Westchester campuses.

- Application
- US$70 application fee
- CV/Resume
- Personal statement
- Two letters of recommendation
- Official transcripts from all institutions attended
- TOEFL—Minimum score required: 78
- Minimum IELT score: 6.5
- Pearson Test of English (PTE)—Minimum score required: 52

Note: TOEFL/IELTS/PTE scores are required for international applicants whose first language is not English, and who did not receive the equivalent of a full four-year degree in the US.

Master of Science (MS)
(32–42 credits, depending on program)
Estimated time to complete: Two years

Estimated Expenses Per Year for Degree
2016–2017 Fall and Spring Terms
Tuition and Fees (18 credits) .................. US$27,714
Room and Board.................................. US$17,343
Health Insurance ................................. US$950
Other (books, personal expenses, and transportation) ..........US$2,780
TOTAL ............................................. US$48,787

Admitted international applicants in need of a student visa must submit the Pace University Financial Affidavit, official bank documentation indicating (in US dollars) sufficient funds available for one year of study, and a copy of their current passport.

Merit Scholarships

By submitting your graduate application, you may be eligible for a merit scholarship of US$6,000 per academic year. Merit scholarships are awarded to entering full-time international students who are registered for a minimum of nine credits per semester.

Graduate Assistantships

A limited number of graduate assistantships are offered to highly qualified full-time students. Criteria are as follows:

- GRE—Minimum score: 156 (Verbal); 151 (Quantitative); 3.5 (Analytical)
- Undergraduate Cumulative Quality Point Average (QPA)—Preferred score: 3.5
- Technical Background—You may be required to interview in person for an assistantship position, at which point your managerial experience will be reviewed and evaluated.

Eligible students are awarded assistantships on either a half-time (six credits + stipend) or full-time (9–12 credits + stipend) basis and require the recipient to work 10 or 20 hours, respectively, performing academic research or providing technical support for a project, program, or department. The Seidenberg School continues to support its graduate assistants until graduation, provided that the student performs his/her responsibilities satisfactorily and maintains a QPA of 3.5; therefore, the number of openings varies from semester to semester.

Career Services for International Students

While the Career Services program cannot guarantee employment, international students are eligible to work off campus in study-related positions with authorization from Career Services and the Office of International Students and Scholars. For more information, go to www.pace.edu/careers.

- You must be fully matriculated in a degree program as a full-time student (9 credits).
- International students on an F-1 visa must be enrolled full-time for one full academic year (two consecutive academic semesters) before they are eligible to participate in a paid/unpaid off-campus internship/Curricular Practical Training (CPT).