INTERNATIONAL STUDENT ORIENTATION

As a new international student at Pace, you represent a unique and valued addition to our student community. In order to provide you with the tools and information you need for a successful transition to the United States and Pace University, the International Students and Scholars Office (ISSO) conducts a Mandatory International Immigrant Information Session (MIIIS) for new students before the beginning of each fall and spring semester. Along with the University’s registration and orientation activities, the MIIIS provides essential information about immigration and employment matters, legal rights and responsibilities, health insurance, adjustment issues, and personal concerns. The International Student Orientation is mandatory for all new international students. Information about specific dates, times, and locations for Orientation will be e-mailed to you and also available online at www.pace.edu/gradaccepted.

What to bring to Orientation: In addition to your enthusiasm, please bring your Form I-20, your passport, and a 15- or 194 electronic arrival record. You are required to check in with the International Students and Scholars Office before or at Orientation.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS AND SCHOLARS OFFICE

The ISSO is available to assist you during your initial transition to Pace University and in the years to come. ISSO staff seek to create an ongoing relationship with each international student throughout his or her time at Pace University. We also assist visiting professors and scholars coming to Pace from overseas to lecture, teach, or engage in research. ISSO strives to be the primary resource and advocate for the international population on campus by providing a variety of services including:

- Information for international students and scholars prior to arrival at Pace
- An international orientation program at the beginning of each semester
- Advising on immigration and employment matters, legal rights and responsibilities, health insurance, adjustment issues, and personal concerns
- A variety of programs and activities throughout the year

UNDERSTANDING YOUR IMMIGRATION STATUS

Most international students enter the United States on an F-1 student visa. In order to obtain such a visa, a student should have a Form I-20 issued by the University. If you have not received your appropriate immigration form, please contact the Office of Admission immediately. If you are transferring to Pace from another US institution, request your SEVIS record to be transferred to Pace and obtain your transfer I-20 from Pace within 15 days from the starting date of the semester. F-1 immigration statuses have detailed regulations that regulate a student’s full-time enrollment in classes, eligibility for employment, transfer from one US institution to another, and various other areas. Although it is the responsibility of students to maintain their immigration status, the ISSO provides advisement and explanation of these regulations and responsibilities. In addition to the information provided in the mandatory International Student Orientation, students may meet individually with advisers or refer to the regulations as explained on our website at www.pace.edu/international.

OBTAINING YOUR STUDENT VISA

After being accepted to Pace University and submitting documentation of financial support, you should receive an I-20 form from the Office of Admission. This form, along with other application materials (details below), should be submitted at travel.state.gov, qualifies you to apply for a student visa. If you have a spouse and/or children who will be entering the United States with you, they may apply for the F-2 dependent visa at the same time. Please take a few minutes to review your I-20 form. Make sure all information printed about you and your program of study is correct. Read the printed instructions on the back of your form and sign it as required. Finally, note that you have been given boxes 5 of the Form I-20. This is the date by which you should report to Pace University. By law, you are allowed to enter the United States with your I-20 up to 30 days prior to this date. If you discover an error on the form, please contact the Office of Graduate Admission immediately by phone, fax, or e-mail to discuss the situation. Do not return your I-20 by mail unless you are instructed to do so. In addition to your I-20, you will need to take your passport, your Pace University acceptance letter, and financial documentation to the American embassy or consulate from the country of your citizenship. Some exceptions apply. Check with your local American consulate. Prior to applying for the visa, you must also pay the SEVIS fee (also called the I-901 payment). You can pay the fee regarding the fee payment with your I-20. This information is also available online at www.pace.edu/SEVIS. It is strongly recommended that you pay prior to the I-901 payment with you in the consulate. Complete the online DS-160 visa application (travel.state.gov). Print the application form confirmation page and bring it to the visa interview. (Canadian students are not required to obtain a visa, but need to obtain a Form I-20 and an I-94 arrival record annotated as “D/S F-1 admission.”) The amount of time needed to obtain a visa varies. All questions should be directed to the embassy or consulate. For more information about visa application, please visit www.pace.edu/international then click on the International Students and Scholars Office link.

If you have been accepted to Pace University but have not yet received your I-20 and there is little time left before school starts, you can enter the United States with a regular B-1 or B-2 visitor’s visa, as there is no guarantee that tourist status can be changed to student status once in the United States. However, if you are already in the United States with a visitor’s visa, an advisor in the ISSO can provide a consultation in regard to your options.

Keep in mind the following: Do NOT enter the United States on a visitor’s visa or under the Visa Waiver Program! Use only the I-20 issued by Pace University. Your Form I-20 is very important—DO NOT lose it!

ENTERING THE UNITED STATES

When you arrive at the airport in the United States, your luggage will be searched, as will your passport and your Form I-20. The following documents should be carried with you in person and never be left with your checked baggage:

- Passport
- I-20
- Copies of your financial support documentation
- Admission letter
- Pace contact phone numbers
- This pamphlet, which contains travel instructions

Once you have entered the US, you will be able to access your I-94 record online. You can also obtain information online through the following link: www.cbp.gov/I94. You will be required to enter your passport and entry information in order to obtain your I-94 electronic record. Once you are able to access your I-94 record on the CBP website, you should review all information and ensure that it is correct. The I-94 record should indicate the day you entered the US, the class of entry (F-1 visa), and the duration of stay, which should be annotated as “D/S” (duration of stay). If the I-94 record is correct, print the record and have it with you at the mandatory International Student Orientation for copying for your records.

This record will continue to be available to you while you remain in the US. Once you depart the United States, this online record will no longer be available for you to view.

Please note, the record is very important for your legal status in the US. For more information about obtaining your electronic arrival record I-94, please visit the ISSO homepage and click on the “Immigration and Visa Information” link.

TRANSPORTATION FROM THE AIRPORT
After you clear immigration, your luggage will be inspected at Customs and you can then proceed to ground (local) transportation. It is best to have at least $100 in US currency to pay for transportation and initial expenses. There are banking kiosks at the airports, but it is best to have some cash on hand. When in the airport or in transportation, do not leave your baggage unattended at any time. Always make sure to know the exact address of your destination, as it will save you time and money. Each airport will have signs guiding you to the “Ground Transportation,” from where you will be able to take a taxi, car service, or a bus.

For New York City students:
Taxi
The easiest way to get anywhere from the airport is by taxi cab. The yellow cabs with a medallion on the hood are those that are licensed by the City of New York. The driver is required to charge the exact amount that shows on the meter, and it is customary to add a 15% tip. There should be no extra charge for luggage or additional people. There is a “flat rate” of $52 (plus tolls and 15% tip) for taxi rides from John F. Kennedy (JFK) Airport to Manhattan. Note that the flat rate applies only to Manhattan, so taxi rides to Brooklyn, Queens, the Bronx, and Staten Island are metered and may cost from $40 to $60. Taxi rides from LaGuardia Airport to any of the five boroughs are metered and range from $10 to $50. If you will be living on campus, ask the taxi driver to take you to the exact location of the residence hall to which you have been assigned.

Bus
A more economical way from JFK or LaGuardia to Manhattan is to take the New York Airport Service Express Bus for about $13 from JFK or from LaGuardia. It leaves the airport every half an hour to the Port Authority Bus Terminal or to Grand Central Terminal in Manhattan, from where you can then take a taxi or train to your final destination. From Newark Airport, take the Newark Airport Express Bus, which departs every 15 minutes and costs approximately $15. This bus will also take you to the Port Authority Bus Terminal or to Grand Central Terminal in Manhattan, from where you can then take a taxi or train to your final destination. You can also take the AirTrain to Newark Penn Station and Path to the World Trade Center for $8.25.

For Westchester students:
Students going to the Westchester (Pleasantville) or White Plains campuses from JFK or LaGuardia airports can take the Connecticut Limousine Service directly to campus. The cost is about $65.* From Newark, students should take this limousine service to the campus for about $65. No reservations are required, and you can request this service at the airport’s ground transportation area. They will tell you the schedule and limousine boarding location. A tip of 15% is suggested and expected by the limo driver.

HEALTH INSURANCE
Like most colleges and universities in the United States, Pace University has a mandatory health insurance policy for international students. The fee will automatically be added to your student invoice and must be paid with tuition. If you have comparable insurance coverage under another policy, you may be able to waive the Pace University international student health insurance. The insurance policy, instructions on applying for a waiver, and the waiver form are posted at www.pace.edu/healthinsurance.

TRANSFERRING FROM ANOTHER US SCHOOL
If you have attended another school in the United States as an F-1 student, request your SEVIS record to be transferred to Pace and obtain your transfer I-20 from Pace. This “immigration transfer” procedure is required even if you graduated from your former school and serves to update SEVIS and notify the US government that you have changed schools. Please carefully read the instructions at www.pace.edu/international. This process must be completed within 15 days of the start of the semester.

FINANCIAL ARRANGEMENTS
Prior to the start of each semester, you will receive a bill for your tuition and fees. Please visit www.pace.edu/payment.

Please note tuition and fees can also be paid by check or money order drawn from a US bank and made payable in US dollars to Pace University. Also, you may bring that the bank may hold funds deposited to open a new account for an extended period before making the funds available to you. Therefore, students are advised to bring at least $500 in traveler’s checks to cover miscellaneous settling in costs, in addition to a regular monthly allowance for expenses. Do not bring large sums of cash with you and do not send cash through the mail.

IF YOUR PLANS CHANGE
We very much hope that you will enroll at Pace University, but if for some reason you do not or you wish to defer your admission to a later semester, please inform the Office of Graduate Admission via e-mail at gradncp@pace.edu for the NYC Campus or at gradwp@pace.edu for the Westchester (Pleasantville) Campus in writing so that we may provide you with a new Form I-20 for the appropriate semester.

QUESTIONS
If you have questions, please feel free to contact the ISSO on your campus. We wish you a safe trip and look forward to welcoming you soon.
