Classic Honors Civilization: The core problems of the lives of the ancient Greek and Romans are an essential part of the human experience. From that perspective, we can study today’s human experience more effectively by beginning with the classical world of the Greeks and Romans because we do not have to worry about the distorting effects of modern science and technology. The fundamental issues of the human condition, war and peace, political structures, and relations between human beings of different races, ethnicities, religions and genders, can all be studied through a combination of literature, philosophy, theater, and art. Classical Civilization brings together elements that should be infused into the college experience of every student. None of the components are being used for the first time: what is new is the way they are being integrated into the educational experience of the fortunate participants. Student will need to enroll in the following classes to qualify for this floor:

Fall 2015
- Philosophy 113 - Ancient Philosophy
- Literature 211S - Masterpieces in World Literature

Spring 2016
- Philosophy 288 - Classical Political Philosophy
- Theater 219 - History of World Theater

Foodies House: Join foodies house and sample some of the New York City’s best food trucks, local flavors, and ethnic restaurants. We’ll build community as we go out for lunches and dinners, try new foods, cook together, go on food tours, and grab coffee in between classes. We’ll do a taste test to find our favorite New York City chocolates or donuts or pizza slices or gluten free bakeries or vegan sandwiches … the possibilities are endless. Foodies House will not only focus on delicious food but also on social change as related to food such as the politics of food production and distribution and feeding the hungry. If you like to eat, and you care about food, this is the house for you!

Great Outdoors House: GO! (for Great Outdoors) focuses on being active through adventures, health, and exploring NYC:

Adventure Include:
- Kayaking, biking, indoor rock climbing, hikes, Coney Island rides, membership in Appalachian Mountain club

Holistic Living
- Eco-friendly lotions and aromatherapy; free meals at sustainable restaurants; sessions with yoga teachers and nutritionists; trips to farmers’ markets; cooking classes focused on healthy food options; fair trade coffee hour

Explore New York City
- Walking tours, vintage shopping trips

Gotham House: Explores multiple facets of New York City life, including:
- Artists Collective for artists, writers, performers of any kind, and art fans (you don't have to be an art or theater major)
- Going to galleries, openings, museums, film houses, plays, performances, concerts, readings
- Connecting with local art communities, on campus and off, meeting artists in New York City
- Art and politics: censorship, political activism, guerilla art
- Learning about sustainable design: Better design is better for the earth
- Making art, working together to make and present our own creative work

One World House: Explores the diverse cultural richness of New York City through activities such as:
- Food/walking tours: discovering ethnic neighborhoods and indulging in the world’s cuisines
- Art, design, music events: experiencing diverse traditions from around the world, in museums, galleries, cultural centers, and on the streets of the city
- International film festivals in the city, on-campus screenings of international films
- Concerts and performances: tickets for theater and performances from different cultures

LEAD (Leadership)
Looking on how to develop your leadership skills and make the most of your time here at Pace? Through a variety of both academic and professional workshops as well as community building events, we will help shape you into the leader, for tomorrow. Typical events include: goal setting exercises, discussions on leadership styles and how you can use them for your success, and networking opportunities with various university departments.

Music Floor NYC
Have a passion for music? Join this community of music lovers. Share Spotify playlists, enjoy open mic nights with your fellow floor mates, and attend concerts throughout NYC on your quest to explore and expand your appreciation of music.

NYCE (New York City Experience)
This floor will expose students to NYC. A community of leaders will be developed immersing students into cultural and social activities. Each month a specific neighborhood (history, culture, food) and must see-spot in the city will be explored. Join the NYCE theme floor community and get this unique social, personal, and social experience all geared toward our campus, New York City.

Undecided Majors (Non Business)
Are you undecided in your major and looking to find how your passions can turn into a career? Join this community of learners as we explore our strengths and leadership potential. Students will be enrolled in an undecided University 101 section and live on the same floor. Field trips to various NYC locations with your peers will allow you to explore various majors and career opportunities at Pace.

3rd Wave (Women’s Empowerment)
3rd Wave is a Living-Learning Community which is designated for female identified students who have a passion for gender equality and progressive thinking. By engaging in lively discussions with like-minded peers, attending monumental movements for empowering females, residents will embark on a new wave of feminism towards an age of equality and acceptance. Enroll in one of the following Women’s Study courses (or similar course) and join this floor today. Check out our website for details on the courses.

Creative Expressions:
Enjoy expressing yourself through painting, photography, drawing, or any other form of the creative arts? Join this community where students will have the opportunity to create and share their art together.

Foodies and Fitness
The Fitness and Foodies floor is dedicated to inspire you to live a healthy and fun lifestyle throughout college and beyond. Whether you are a gym enthusiast or food connoisseur, the Fitness and Foodies Floor is for you! Join us in this journey to create a happier, healthier and better you. #YouCanBeBoth

Honors (All Majors)
On the Honors Floors we are building a community of leaders and global citizens while encouraging scholarship, offering exciting opportunities and broadening horizons. Come figure out who you are, who you want to be and how you can make a difference in the world. Sample monthly topics include: gender/women’s issues, political ethics, sex and relationship ethics, media issues.
