The Ernst & Young Fund for Excellence in Accounting Education

The Ernst & Young Fund for Excellence in Accounting Education was established by Ernst & Young LLP to promote educational excellence in accounting at Pace University. The Fund will provide scholarship awards of $5,000 ($2,500 for the fall semester and $2,500 for the spring semester) each to outstanding students who are enrolled in the Lubin School of Business in a qualified accounting program and maintain a 3.30 GPA. Students eligible for these awards must demonstrate involvement and leadership in either co-curricular activities at Pace or service organizations in their local community or high school.

To apply for the Ernst & Young Scholarship, students must belong to any of the following groups:

- Pace University Accounting students in their third, fourth or fifth year with a declared major in Accounting, including BBA/MBA students or students enrolled in the 150-hour Accounting program.
- Pace University graduate students with a declared major in Accounting.
- Pace University Law School students in the combined MBA Accounting/JD program.
- Pace University graduate students with a declared major in Taxation who are eligible to sit for the CPA exam upon graduation.

Scholarship awards will be granted annually and may be used for tuition and/or related costs. Awards may be renewed through a newly submitted and reviewed application. Recipients may receive this award for no more than three academic years, during their third, fourth, and/or fifth year of undergraduate study at Pace, as long as they remain eligible according to scholarship criteria. Graduate students and Pace University Law School students may receive this award for no more than three academic years as long as they remain eligible according to scholarship stipulations. ALL students must be enrolled full time during both the fall 2016 and spring 2017 semesters. Students must be US citizens to be eligible for this scholarship.

Students applying for the scholarship must:
1. Complete the Ernst & Young Fund for Excellence in Accounting Education application;
2. Attach a current resume;
3. Attach a current transcript;
4. Submit TWO recommendation forms;
5. Submit a personal statement (limited to 150 words) stating why you should be granted the Ernst & Young Fund for Excellence in Accounting Education award;
6. Submit a professional statement on how you see your professional career developing at EY.

Application packets should be submitted to:
NYC Campus - Dr. Rudy Jacob – 1 Pace Plaza, 4th Floor West, New York, NY 10038
Westchester Campus – Dr. Barbara Farrell – Goldstein Center Room 216, Pleasantville, NY 10570
