Fall 2011 Reading

Featuring award-winning poet August Kleinzahler in a night of reading, Q&A, book signing, and refreshments.

August Kleinzahler has won the International Griffin Poetry Prize, the National Book Critics Circle Award in Poetry, and an Academy Award in Literature from the American Academy of Arts and Letters. He has published eight books of poetry, most recently Sleeping It Off in Rapid City, and is also the author of two books of prose: Cutty, One Rock: Low Characters and Strange Places, Gently Explained, a memoir about growing up in New Jersey, and Music I-LXXIV, a collection of his writings on music. Kleinzahler has been a logger, a manual laborer in Alaska, a locksmith, a cabdriver, an ESL teacher, and a teacher of poetry at some of the best universities in the country.

Poets @ Pace is organized by Pace Poet-in-Residence Charles North and sponsored by the Office of the Provost. For more information, contact cnorth@pace.edu.
