These Guidelines DO NOT pertain to multi-serving containers (kegs, mini-kegs, wine boxes, etc.; including mass consumption drinking games.) It will be at the discretion of the Hearing Officer to upgrade and add to sanctions concerning incidents of excessive amounts of alcohol (present or consumed), multiple violations, and prior judicial history.

Failure to comply or complete any of the above noted sanction(s) will result in further disciplinary action. Each conduct hearing will be based on individual merit. The Hearing Officer will consider mitigating and/or aggravating circumstances and reserves the right to decrease/increase any sanctions noted above.

Residence Hall Probation - Specified or indefinite period during which infracton-free conduct must be maintained coupled with a warning that subsequent improper conduct or violation of University rules or regulations may result in more severe disciplinary action including separation from residence and/or the University. (May include restriction and or revocation of privileges.)*

Restriction or Revocation of Privileges: Alteration, limitation or revocation of certain privileges associated with membership or participation in the University community for a specified or indefinite period of time. Examples of such privileges include but are not limited to: entering University property or facilities; loss of guest privileges; use of or participation in programs, activities, events and services on or off campus; membership, election to or holding office in a club, organization or society; representing the University on a committee or in a program or activity; operation or parking of a motor vehicle on University premises; participation in recreational, intramural or varsity athletic programs; use of University technology resources.*
