Under Internal Revenue Service (IRS) regulations, the high deductible health plan (HDHP) start date helps determine when an HSA can be opened and how much you can contribute to your HSA. Your or your employer provided an HDHP start date shown above. If you were enrolled in an HDHP prior to this date, you should update your HDHP start date on this page. Step 3 of 3: Beneficiaries

Add a primary beneficiary

You can name a person, trust, or your estate as your primary beneficiary for your HSA. The primary beneficiary will receive any remaining balance in your HSA after your death. You can have more than one beneficiary. If you do, you'll need to assign percentages to each beneficiary. The percentages determine the amount each beneficiary will receive from your HSA.

You can also name a contingent beneficiary. A contingent beneficiary receives your HSA balance if your primary beneficiaries are deceased at the time of your death. If you need to make changes later, you (the account holder) can do it in Account Settings.

Beneficiary Terms

- If all of my beneficiaries predecease me, my HSA Funds will be paid to my estate.
- If my spouse is my beneficiary and receives my HSA, they may choose to continue the HSA in their name. This is subject to the HSA Custodian's consent. My spouse must also provide a written election, sign the forms and provide the required information to the HSA Custodian to open an HSA with PayFlex.
- If my beneficiary is not my spouse, the HSA terminates as of my date of death and any remaining balance is paid to my beneficiary(ies).
- I understand that in certain states, my spouse's consent may be necessary if I wish to name a person as my beneficiary other than or in addition to my spouse. I also understand that I should consult with my attorney before making this type of beneficiary designation.
- By naming a beneficiary, I represent and warrant to the HSA Custodian that this beneficiary designation satisfies all legal requirements under applicable law and, on behalf of myself, the beneficiary or beneficiaries, my heirs and my estate, I hereby indemnify and hold the HSA Custodian harmless from and against any and all claims, damages, liabilities, and costs (including attorney's fees) arising as a result of the HSA Custodian's payment of my HSA balance in accordance with this beneficiary designation.
- The HSA Custodian may ask my beneficiary(ies) for proof of identity and entitlement to payment before making a final payout from my HSA.
