Give your students unparalleled experience in one of the financial and media centers of the world

The global economy demands global experience. There is no better place for students to get it than in New York City. Pace University's Center for Global Business Programs will open up a new world to your students for a fraction of what it would cost at most other private American universities.

What to expect: Custom education and training programs, from two weeks to two semesters. An education from highly regarded academics and business leaders. Opportunities to network with top-level executives, many of whom are Pace alumni. Internships on Wall Street and at Fortune 500 companies. Visits to the Federal Reserve, New York Stock Exchange, Broadway shows, world class museums, Central Park, and more. It's a truly unique, only in New York, experience.

Nationally Recognized, Internationally Focused

A member of EFMD, an international organization that offers a network of professionals and institutions from more than 80 countries a forum for information and innovative management ideas

Accredited for both business and accounting by AACSB International, an elite distinction shared by fewer than 2% of business schools in the world

Forbes

One of the top 20 colleges in the U.S. “that will make you rich”

Top 5 university for placing undergraduates in internships

Nearly 1,000 international students from 81 countries are currently studying at Pace

Students get what they need to succeed

With four distinct programs designed to provide unique educational experiences, undergraduate, graduate, and executive education students will get a dynamic education, professional preparation, and the opportunity to engage fully with the Pace University community of students, faculty, and alumni.

Custom Cohort Program

Undergraduate and graduate students attend Pace as a single cohort for one or two semesters

- Full immersion and integration with degree-seeking students
- J-1 Visa sponsorship and post-program extension for internships
- Comprehensive student orientation and administrative support, including housing guidance
- Full access to Pace University resources and events

Double Degree Partnerships

- Allow your students to earn a prestigious American degree in addition to your degree
- Enable your students to study with American students and work in the United States for an academic year
- Provide your students with access to top-rated career services and an extensive alumni network
- Distinguish your institution from your competitors by offering a New York City degree program

*International Visiting Students must be within the top 50% of their class; 3rd or 4th year level; have a minimum TOEFL score of 570 (paper), 230 (computer), or 88/89 (internet); and conduct a video interview with Pace administrators.

Pace University

"Our partnership with Pace is a highly successful one. Our students get personal attention beyond our expectations."

—Anette Øverås Skott, International Program Manager
BI Norwegian Business School

"With Pace University, we have managed to get the right balance between allowing large numbers of students to participate and ensuring that they get a real insight into the local business culture."

—Mark Thomas, Associate Dean and Director of International Affairs
Grenoble Ecole de Management, France

"From the program planning stage, right through to sending out transcripts, the attention to detail at Pace is extraordinary. Our students get the most from their time in NYC—academically and culturally—and are safe in the knowledge that expert assistance is always within easy reach."

—Vicky Millar, International Coordinator
NEOMA Business School, France
