James Best '18 BA in Communications

When he saw a posting for an internship with NBC Sports Group on Pace's job board, Handshake, Best knew he could combine his love of sports with journalism. He met with his career counselor, reached out to the recruiter, and landed the internship. "The University was vital to my success because it offered me the resources and support necessary to succeed in my academic and professional career," says Best. After two internships with NBC Sports Group and NBC Olympics covering the 2018 Winter Olympics, Best landed a full-time job as digital editor at NBC Sports.

GET MARKET READY WITH CAREER SERVICES

For generations, Pace University has excelled at preparing students to succeed from the very start of their careers. Through the Pace Path, our signature model that combines outstanding academics, mentoring, internships, and other real-world experiences, Pace students graduate with the tools, networks, and skills to make an immediate impact in their fields.

At Pace Career Services, we have the resources and programs to take you from the classroom to the real world:

- Get personalized guidance: Meet one-on-one with a career counselor who will work with you to define and achieve your career goals.
- Stand out: Hone the skills you need to market yourself at one of our workshops on resume writing, interviewing, networking, personal presentation, and much more.
- Connect: Access thousands of job postings through Pace's online job database, Handshake.
- Meet employers: More than 350 employers from media, health care, accounting, government, marketing, and more attend our on-campus career and internship fairs each semester.

Eiman Ahmed '18

BS in Computer Science

C# Developer, Morgan Stanley

First impressions count—that's why Eiman Ahmed reached out to Career Services for help with her resume. She's made a name for herself as a woman in STEM—securing several internships including at Verizon, multiple internships at Microsoft, and as a CodeU Student Engineer at Google. After graduation, she secured a full-time job as a developer for Morgan Stanley.

IT'S NOT BUSINESS AS USUAL

At Pace, we don't just help prepare you to enter the workforce. If you have your heart set on entrepreneurial endeavors, a corner office with a view, or you want to set foot on a Broadway stage, we'll help you get there. Our relationships with more than 5,000 regional employers mean that opportunities abound for Pace students.

Argenys Morban '19

BS in Economics

Equity Research Seasonal Analyst,
Goldman Sachs

For Argenys Morban, it's been the life-changing hands-on experiences like being a member of the Pace Fed

Team which beat out Ivy League schools to win the National College Federal Challenge, and interning at the Battery Park City Authority and Goldman Sachs, that have helped him get one step closer to achieving his dreams.

"Career Services truly did a great job ensuring I was well-equipped for the real world."

A NETWORK THAT WORKS FOR YOU

Pace alumni are 143,000+ strong worldwide. By choosing Pace, you join a network of alumni mentors and employers that will help you to build critical connections before and during your career.

"Pace was really the foundation for me. Coming here helped me develop interpersonal skills that were an outgrowth of attending a very culturally diverse University. That helped me greatly in my career and also shaped my perspective and world view in general."
