

Pace University's Take Our Daughters and Sons to Work® Day is Thursday, April 27, 2023

All faculty and staff are encouraged to invite their daughters, sons, grandchildren, nieces or nephews between the ages of 8 and 15 to this event. Several activities are planned for parent and child participation designed to acquaint our children with Pace University and introduce them to the workplace.

Registration Form

For New York and Westchester, please submit forms via email to Rosemary Mulry at rmulry@pace.edu. All registration forms must be received by Monday, April 24, 2023.

A detailed schedule of activities will be sent with your registration confirmation.

If your child will be accompanying you to work, but will not be participating in the planned activities, we still need you to register your child. This is for your protection and the protection of your child.
