

New Program Submissions

Instructions and Workflow including
Important FY26 Submission Dates

Updated 9/1/23

Instructions

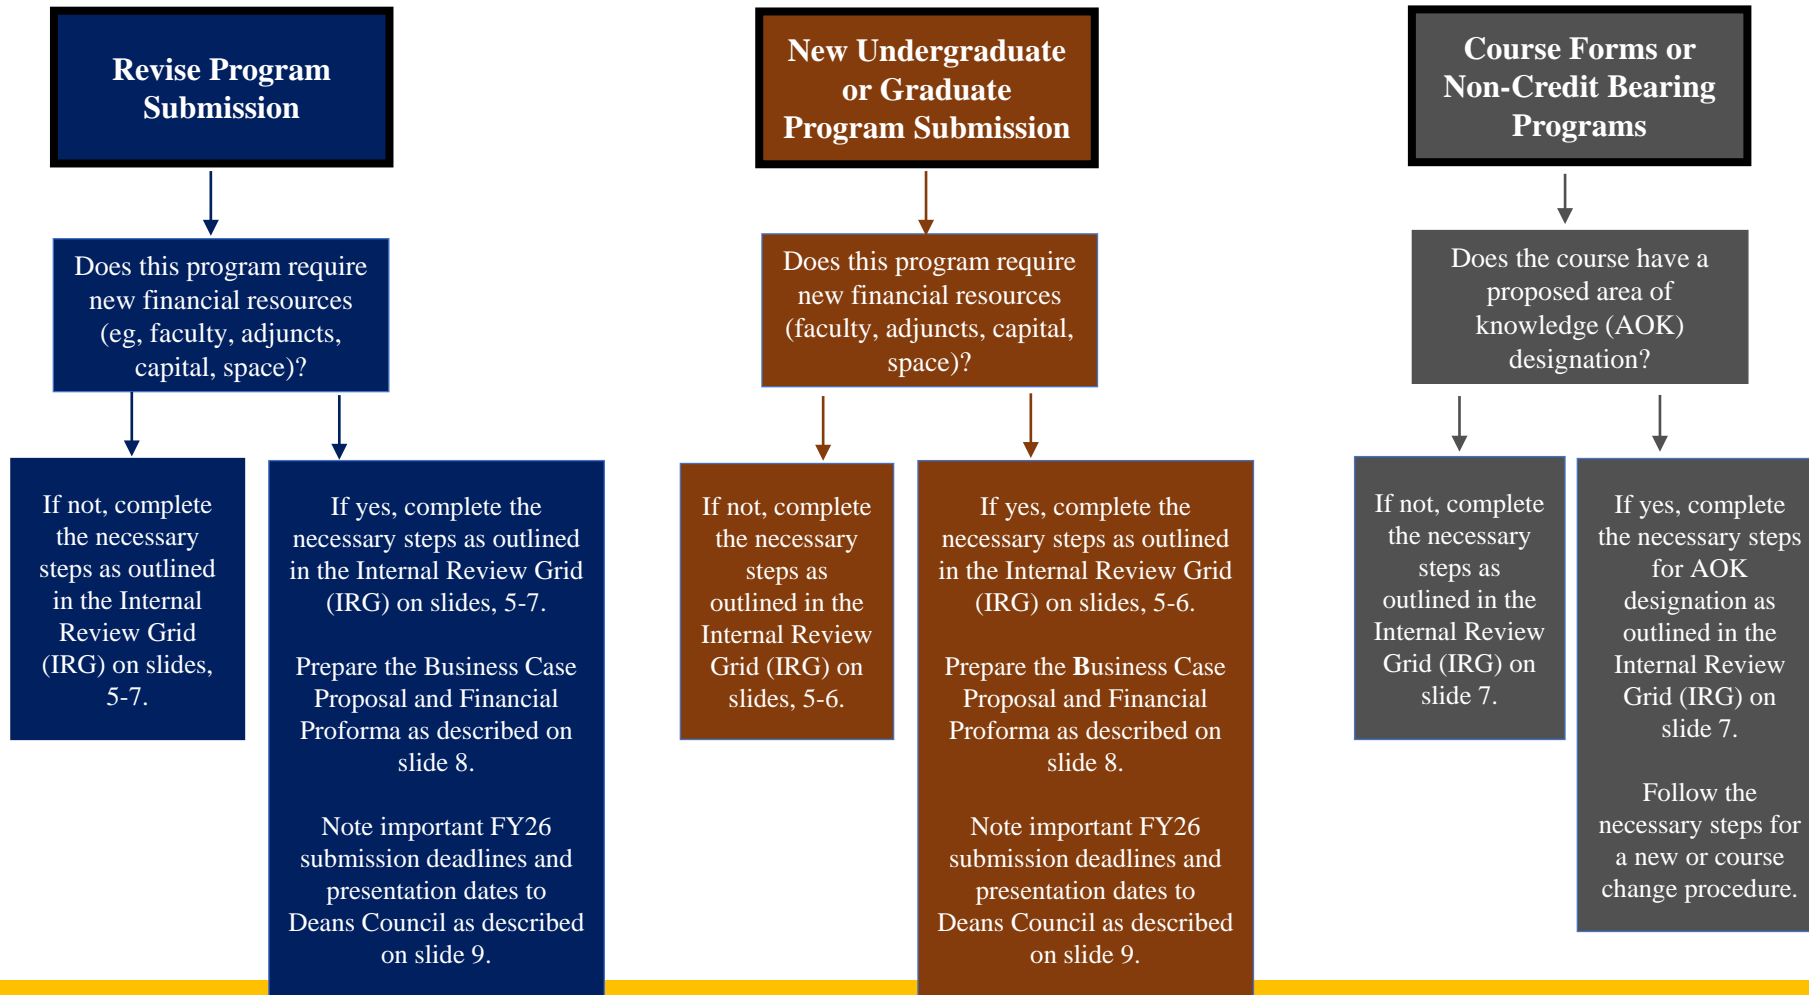

1. Internal Review Grid (IRG)

- To be used for the review and approval for ALL ACADEMIC PROGRAM SUBMISSIONS
- The Internal Review Grid provides a comprehensive summary of the review and approval steps needed for:
 - All undergraduate and graduate programs, courses, and non-credit bearing programs
 - Indicates which new programs and program revisions are required to be submitted to NYS for approval

2. Business Case Proposal and Financial Proforma

- To be completed for ONLY THOSE ACADEMIC PROGRAMS REQUIRING new financial resources (e.g., faculty, adjuncts, capital, space, supplies & services, etc.)
- These forms provide a comprehensive summary of the market demand and financial resources needed for the new program submission:
 - Business Case Proposal provides a comprehensive market study and program assessment
 - Financial Proforma provides a 5-year financial projection of enrollment, revenue, and profit
 - See Deans Council presentation dates (slide 9)

Workflow Summary

1. Internal Review Grid (IRG)

- The Internal Review Grid provides a comprehensive summary of the review and approval steps needed for all undergraduate and graduate programs, courses, and non-credit bearing programs
- The Internal Review Grid indicates which new programs and program changes need to go to New York State for approval

*Please note that the IRG was approved by BOTH the NYCFC and Westchester FC on 2/5/20 & 2/7/20, respectively.
Please note that Footnote #6 was added on 6/26/20 to conform to new Middle States Accreditation Requirements.
Please note footnotes were updated in March 2023 that did not require NYFC and Westchester FC approval.*

Approval Workflow

For new programs and/or programs that require additional financial resources:

FY26 Timeline

For programs that require new financial resources, the goal of this timeline is to align the financial, operational, and human resource needs with the annual budget cycle.

Next Steps

- Significant lead time is often needed to prep for program launches. Examples include:
 - Prepping all marketing and recruiting materials
 - Creating the application in Slate
 - Creating the program web site and links
 - Creating program codes
 - Scheduling courses and assigning staff
 - Course development
 - Approving tuition pricing and aid packages
 - Creating orientations and onboarding for new students
 - Adding content to the university catalog
- Consultation and notification with non-academic departments (such as admissions, marketing, financial aid, enrollment management, tech support) can be initiated while waiting for NYS approval.
