WESTCHESTER COUNSELING CENTER

RED CARD: Recognizing and Reaching Out to Students of Concern
This informational guide provides resources to help faculty and staff recognize and assist students of concern. As staff and faculty, you are often the first to see distressed and/or disruptive students. As such, you are in a position to encourage and help students connect to the supports they need. Your expression of concern and offering of resources could be critical in helping to save a student from emotional, academic and other distress.

Additional and more detailed information on how to be of help to students can also be found in our Just In Case app in the MyPace app or at <http://bit.ly/justincasepace>

WHEN FACED WITH A DISRUPTIVE OR DISTRESSED STUDENT, THE MOST IMPORTANT FIRST STEP IS TO DETERMINE IF THERE IS DANGER TO ANYONE.

- ♦ If there is immediate danger to anyone, call 9-1-1 and then Pace Security.
- ♦ If you are not certain about immediate danger, call Pace Security and/or the Counseling and Personal Development Center for consultation and input. After hours, Pace Security can contact the counselor-on-duty.
- ♦ If there is no danger but the student is having academic and/or personal issues, refer them to appropriate campus resource(s).
- ♦ SEE RESOURCES & NUMBERS ON RIGHT AND SIGNS & ACTION STEPS ON BACK.

FIRST ALERT TEAM
Chaired by the AVP/Dean for Students, this multidisciplinary team from key University offices intervenes when a student's success is compromised. When necessary, team members will contact a student to help them create an action plan for success. Email the Dean for Students at deanlisa@pace.edu to refer a student to the team. Please also submit a Care Report form at www.pace.edu/carereport.

THREAT ASSESSMENT MANAGEMENT TEAM (TAM)
Led by the AVP/Dean of Students and AVP for General Services/Security, the TAM is committed to improving campus safety through a proactive, collaborative, objective and thoughtful approach to prevention, identification, assessment, intervention, and management of situations that pose or could pose a threat to the safety and well being of the campus community. Refer to the contact information on the right in order to reach the Dean for Students and/or Security and activate the TAM.
