STUDENTS ARE LIMITED TO ONE STUDY ABROAD AWARD AND ONE INTERNATIONAL FIELD STUDY SCHOLARSHIP FROM THE LUBIN CENTER FOR GLOBAL BUSINESS PROGRAMS DURING THEIR PERIOD OF STUDY AT PACE.

ABOUT THE SCHOLARSHIPS

The Lubin School of Business, through grants received from the Figueroa Family Fund and Eugene and Nancy Celentano Fund, awards scholarships for Semester Abroad and International Field Study opportunities. Those who are offered an award can expect to receive $3,500 per student for Semester Abroad and $2,500 or $3,000 per student for International Field Study.

Lubin will also offer one unique scholarship for a Fall Semester Abroad participant. This $3,500 award is made possible through the Philip and Marianne Bleser Fund. Students will automatically be considered for the single $3,500 award upon regular application.

WHO CAN APPLY? HOW ARE AWARDS DETERMINED?

These scholarships apply only to Lubin School of Business students who are registered in the Lubin Semester Abroad or Field Study experience for which they are requesting aid.

All Lubin School of Business students enrolled in a semester abroad or field study experience are encouraged to apply. However, scholarships will be awarded on the basis of academic merit and demonstrated financial need.

Figueroa Semester Abroad Awards ($3500) - These scholarships will be available to Lubin majors enrolled in a semester-long study abroad experience. Preference for Fall 2024 will be given towards study at BI Norway Business School (Oslo, Norway), CEFAM (Lyon, France), Paris School of Business (Paris, France), and OP Jindal (Delhi, India). Scholarship applicants must have submitted a study abroad application (Quick Steps for Semester Abroad) through the Study Abroad Office. Students will need to have a minimum QPA of 3.0, have completed at Pace a minimum of 12 credits for undergraduate students and 9 credits for graduate students at the time the application is submitted, and filed a 2024-2025 FAFSA with the financial aid office.

Figueroa International Field Study Scholarships ($2500) – These scholarships will be available to Lubin majors in a designated Figueroa-supported Lubin Faculty-Led course.
