Inspiring Futures

Comprehensive Services for Students Formerly in Foster Care or Raised by Non-Biological Parents

Pace has partnered with the nonprofit organization, Inspiring Futures, which provides free, comprehensive educational and counseling services to all students who have been part of the foster care system for any part of their lives (and/or who were adopted or raised by someone other than their biological parents). This includes individualized tutoring; coaching on study skills and time management; connection to key resources; navigating college in general; individual counseling; and much more! For referrals or more information: Inspiring Futures or contact Sue Maxam, Ed.D. at: smaxam@pace.edu.

Class Attendance and Your Financial Aid

Student eligibility for Federal financial aid is based on attendance and participation in your classes.

Students should attend all classes to avoid any disruptions with their registration and financial aid!

REMEMBER!

Professors are required to take attendance one-time during the semester.

Students who do not attend and participate in their courses may be dropped due to non-attendance.

IMPORTANT!

Check your Email!

Students should check their Pace email regularly!

Email is our official way of communicating with you. Please be sure to read and respond to all emails you receive from the Financial Aid Office.

Don't ignore emails!
