2025 FALL SEMESTER

The official requirements and rules of conduct for all Pace University passengers boarding the university's shuttle bus service.

All students, faculty and staff members are expected to enforce these regulations to ensure passenger safety and a respectful environment.

Boarding Requirements

- Passengers must present a valid Pace University ID.
- Passengers are required to sign the driver's passenger log sheet.

Passenger Conduct

The following conduct is prohibited on the shuttle bus:

- Consumption of food or beverages.
- Smoking or vaping of any kind.
- Disrespectful or disruptive discussion.

Public Health Guidance

In line with CDC recommendations, passengers who are feeling unwell are encouraged to wear a mask to protect other passengers, particularly those with high-risk health conditions.

Please contact the Transportation Department with any questions.

Shuttle Service Policy: Seat Reservations and Cancellations

The Pace University Transportation Department manages a seat reservation system to provide equitable access to our intercampus shuttle service. All reservation holders are subject to the following policy.

Reservation Cancellation

- In the event a reserved seat is no longer needed, the reservation holder must notify the Transportation Department via email at Transdept@pace.edu at their earliest convenience.
- Prompt cancellation ensures that the seat can be reallocated to another student on the waiting list.

No-Show Consequences

- A "no-show" is defined as a reservation holder failing to appear for their scheduled trip.
- Upon two (2) documented no-shows, a student's existing and future shuttle reservations will be subject to automatic cancellation for a specified period.
