Elisabeth Haub School of Law

Welcome, Visiting Scholar!

The Elisabeth Haub School of Law at Pace University is pleased to welcome you as a Visiting Scholar! During your stay, you are responsible for complying with the Pace University Guiding Principles of Conduct, published in the *Academic Rules and Honor Code*.

As a member of the academic community at Haub Law, you will conduct legal research. All Visiting Scholars are supervised by a Law School faculty member who will offer you support, feedback, and overall guidance to help you carry out the objectives of your research. In addition, the Office of Graduate Admissions and International Affairs will provide you with academic and administrative support throughout your appointment.

Some of the terms of your appointment as a Visiting Scholar are outlined below:

- You will be provided with a Pace ID card, which will grant you access to campus grounds and facilities. Access to school email and Wi-Fi is also included.
- You will have access to the Pace Law Library, including its print and electronic materials, scanners, and computer labs.
- You will have access to a variety of on-campus workspaces, including individual carrels within the Law Library stacks, two reading rooms for research, reflection, and discussion, as well as other open study spaces across campus.
- You will also have access to online legal research databases, including Lexis and Westlaw. You may make use of the free Lexis printing available through the dedicated Lexis printers in the computer labs.
- You are welcome to attend all lectures—both in-person and virtual—as well as on-campus events. You will also be invited to all events hosted by the Office of Graduate Admissions.
- You may audit classes offered by the Law School with the permission of your faculty advisor and the instructor teaching the course.

We are very pleased to have you join our community and look forward to supporting your academic endeavors during your stay at Haub Law.
