TIPS FROM T/GNC STUDENTS

- Utilize the discussion groups! They are a great place to find a sense of community, and talk about things you may not be able to talk about elsewhere.
- College is a great time to experiment, don't be afraid to try different names or pronouns. Even when meeting new people, who won't even know they're different!
- If you are ever made to feel unsafe or uncomfortable, you have the right to report it. If you don't want to report it, that's okay too! The LGBTQA Center is here to support you either way.
