Pace University Career Focused, Veteran Friendly

www.pace.edu/veterans

You already have drive, determination, and courage. Pace will prepare you to launch the next phase of your professional life.

Pace University recognizes the commitment our veterans have demonstrated to our country and is firmly committed to assisting veterans, active duty, and reserve service members in advancing their careers through higher education.

As a private university located in the heart of Manhattan and Westchester County, Pace offers rigorous academics, small class sizes, and robust financial aid for our veterans. We also offer a range of personal and professional support services to help veterans transition into and succeed in the field of their choosing.

“I found Pace to be the best school in New York City offering unlimited GI Bill and Yellow Ribbon Program financial support. The faculty members in the science departments were tremendously committed to helping me succeed. I was heavily involved in laboratory research, presented my work at conferences in New York and Florida, and co-authored an article in a peer-reviewed journal. In large part because of my professors and the resources at Pace, I was able to successfully enter medical school and get closer to my dream of becoming a doctor.”

“I chose Pace because of its location, reputation, and the networking opportunities that are available. Pace offers multiple avenues to be involved in the graduate community through clubs and other organizations, so you can learn and make a difference in the lives of others around you. The faculty and staff at the Lubin School of Business have been valuable mentors and connected me with people and opportunities that I would not have otherwise. I now have the foundation, resources, and confidence necessary to be a successful business owner.”

“Pace is especially well-connected to tech companies in New York City and offers many opportunities for students to interact and work with prospective employers, something I wouldn't necessarily get from other schools. From the first day I visited the school, Pace staff and faculty helped me find organizations and events that have greatly helped me transition from the military to life at the University and in New York City, as well as determine the best track to reach my academic and career goals.”

— Preston Rollins '16
MS in Computer Science
Veteran, United States Air Force

Personalized professional preparation at every level

With more than 100 majors and combined degree programs spread across two campuses and five schools and colleges, Pace students have the opportunity to explore their interests and talents and choose a degree that's right for them.

Veteran students also receive priority class registration, and new veteran students have access to a Veteran 101 Combat to Classroom transition course.

Career Services

Pace's Career Services team provides customized veteran career counseling focused on internships and jobs, plus a host of services to you at no cost, starting as soon as you begin your studies and continuing even after you graduate. In addition to counseling, Career Services offers veteran-tailored resume writing and interview skills workshops and career fairs, while also connecting veteran students with prospective employers for valuable internships and meaningful full-time employment.

Financial Support for Veterans

Pace's Veterans Tuition Scholarship is available to both full- and part-time undergraduate and graduate students and can cover half of your tuition costs. Students who are not on active duty status with 100 percent entitlement to the Post-9/11 GI Bill automatically receive the Yellow Ribbon Program award. Yellow Ribbon funds, in conjunction with the Yellow Ribbon Program, may allow eligible veterans to attend Pace for free.

Our Veteran Student Checklist takes you step-by-step through the application process and helps you maximize your financial aid benefits.

Veteran Affairs Team

Pace's Veteran Affairs team helps current and future veterans transition to university life; access and maximize federal, state, and branch resources; and optimize Pace University resources, such as the Office of Student Assistance, which specifically helps veterans understand and access all the benefits available to them, as well as provides guidance on which military benefit to use first to maximize support.

Dedicated Veteran Admission Team

Pace's veteran admission team works with students to complete the application process, provides information about academic programs and services, and works with future students on transfer and military credit evaluations.

Counseling Center

The professional staff at Pace's Counseling Center is available to assist students, staff, and faculty in resolving personal, academic, or vocational problems. These services are available free of charge to members of the Pace Community.

Pace Student Veterans of America (SVA)

SVA is a nationally-recognized student group with chapters on both the New York City and Westchester campuses that provides peer-to-peer mentoring, networking, and support to more than 250 veterans attending Pace. The SVA is not only a fun social group, but also helps vets access information, services, and staff.
