IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT THE PARENT LOAN PROCESS

The Federal Direct Parent Loan for Undergraduate Students (PLUS) is offered by the US Department of Education. A Master Promissory Note (MPN) will be used for most PLUS Loans. This means that you will be able to request future loans and, if approved, not have to sign a new note. This process is in place for the Federal Direct Student Loan Program. If the parent is denied the PLUS Loan after the credit check and the loan is subsequently approved with a cosigner (endorser), the PLUS MPN will only be valid through that loan. You would have to sign a new PLUS MPN for additional loans.

Your parent must complete a Master Promissory Note online at www.studentloans.gov. He/she will need his/her FSA ID. If your parent does not have an FSA ID they can create one at <https://fsaid.ed.gov>.

If the credit is not approved you may choose to seek a cosigner or to cancel the loan and request a Federal Direct Unsubsidized Stafford Loan for the student.

GENERAL ELIGIBILITY FOR A PLUS LOAN

- The 2019–2020 FAFSA must be filed for the student listed on this application.
- The student must be matriculated in a degree program, enrolled in at least six credits, and making satisfactory academic progress.
- The loan may be in parent/stepparent name. The parent/stepparent borrowing the loan must be a US citizen or eligible non-citizen.
- The parent or stepparent may seek an endorser (cosigner) if their credit is denied.
- The student must be a dependent undergraduate and a US citizen or eligible non-citizen.

You may borrow any amount up to the cost of your child's education, minus any other financial aid he or she may receive. A 4.248% loan origination fee is deducted from the amount requested.

The interest rate is fixed for the term of the loan and is currently 7.6%.

WHEN TO APPLY

You apply for a Direct PLUS Loan each academic year. Allow plenty of time for your application to be reviewed and processed by Pace University and the US Department of Education. Processing time varies. We recommend that you begin the application process 2–3 weeks prior to any payment date. You can apply for a PLUS Loan after school begins, but requests must be initiated 30 days prior to the close of semester(s) for which the loan is requested.

DISBURSEMENTS

US Department of Education regulations state that federal aid may be disbursed no earlier than 10 days before the start of the semester for which the aid is awarded. In addition, fall/spring PLUS Loans must be disbursed in at least two disbursements. The second disbursement of a two-semester loan may not be earlier than 10 days before the start of the second semester.

REPAYMENT

You will begin repaying your PLUS Loan 60 days after the full amount you have borrowed for an academic year has been disbursed. Since July 1, 2008, repayment on new Parent Loans can be deferred until six months after the dependent student (for whom the loan is borrowed) graduates or falls below half-time enrollment. To receive this deferment, parents must contact their loan servicer which can be obtained at www.NSLDS.ed.gov.
