

Hillary & Chelsea Clinton Visit Pace University

Hillary Clinton, right, with daughter Chelsea Clinton, left, at Pace University discussing "The Book of Gutsy Women: Favorite Stories of Courage and Resilience," which they co-wrote.

Former First Lady, Secretary of State and presidential candidate Hillary Clinton and her daughter Chelsea Clinton were at Pace University in Pleasantville on Dec. 18 to talk about their new book, "The Book of Gutsy Women: Favorite Stories of Courage and Resilience," on the final stop of their 2019 book tour.

The program was moderated by actress and singer Vanessa Williams.

The book, published by Simon & Schuster, looks at the lives of women in history who have made a difference, ranging from social activists and political figures to writers and Olympians.

Hillary Clinton touched on a number of subjects during the evening, from the sacrifices women throughout history have made in their struggles for equality, to the need for optimism during difficult times, to the impeachment hearings against President Donald Trump.